T COPELAND

DEDICATION

"Those who can command themselves, command others"
. . . Hazlitt.

Her voice is gentle and her smile is warm. We know she likes us and in return we all love her. In appreciation for her gentle encouragement and understanding heart, her modest and lady like disposition, and her impartial dealings with all our problems, we take great pleasure in dedicating the 1951 Edition of WINDSWEPT ECHOES to our friend and teacher, MISS FRANCES SNOW.

ALMA MATER

On the county's southern border
Reared against the sky,
Proudly stands our Alma Mater,
As the years go by,
May it ever be our watchword
Conquer and prevail,
Hail, to Thee, our Alma Mater,
Dear old Copeland hail!

When we from these walls have parted
And life's journey's on,
Thy great spirit will inspire us,
'Till eternal dawn,
May it ever be our watchword,
Conquer and prevail,
Hail to thee, our Alma Mater,
Dear old Copeland, hail!
